This is the Silver Version of Pokémon. There is also a Gold Version, but the story is the same. There are some differences between the two versions, such as how often and which types of Pokémon appear. You can also connect to another Game Boy to battle or trade Pokémon with a friend.

IMPORTANT!

The Gold and Silver Versions of Pokémon are NOT compatible with Pokémon Stadium™ for the N64®.

YOUR ADVENTURE BEGINS

In this world live creatures called Pokémon. Humans and Pokémon have lived, worked and played together in harmony for ages. Nevertheless, there are still numerous mysteries surrounding them. In order to find out more about these strange and marvelous creatures, many scientists—such as Professor Elm of New Bark Town—have dedicated their lives to Pokémon research.

Recently, while he was busy with his research, Professor Elm received some mail from one of his acquaintances, Mr. Pokémon. The message said, "I've discovered something fantastic! Please come and see it!!!" Unfortunately, Professor Elm was far too busy to leave his lab, so he called a friend to help him—a young boy named Silver.

"Please go in my place and see what Mr. Pokémon has discovered," said Professor Elm. Always kind and curious, Silver agreed to help.

The Professor then showed Silver three Pokémon and said, "Choose one of these Pokémon to take along with you." Silver was thrilled! This was the first Pokémon Silver had ever had!

Just then, Silver noticed that someone had been lurking in the shadows outside, watching all this through the window. It appeared to be a boy about the same age as Silver, so Silver decided to go outside to talk to him. But when Silver approached the boy, he pushed him backwards, saying, "What are you looking at?!?"

Who was this strange boy, and what had Mr. Pokémon discovered? You're about to find out...

YOUR ADVENTURE BEGINS

You can set the game's built-in clock to match the time in the real world. For example, if you play the game at night, it will also be night in the game, and you may be able to find some Pokémon that come out only at that time. There are also things in the game, such as "Tuesday Events"—you can participate in the event only if you play on the specified day.

If you are playing Pokémon Gold or Silver in the United States, Daylight Saving Time (DST) may be in effect. For most of the US, DST begins at 2:00 a.m. on the first Sunday of April and lasts until 2 a.m. on the last Sunday of October. There are some areas of the United States that do not observe Daylight Saving Time. Please check your local time when entering the time in Pokémon Gold or Silver.

When Daylight Saving Time changes in real life, you should talk to your Mom face-to-face in the game to change the clock setting.

OBJECT OF THE GAME

Catch all kinds of Pokémon!

Your goal is to complete your POKéDEX by collecting lots of different kinds of Pokémon. When you catch a Pokémon, its data will automatically be recorded in your POKéDEX. Professor Oak, another Pokémon researcher, invented the POKéDEX. Use the PC to contact him every once in a while to have him rate how complete your POKéDEX is.

- In order to catch all the Pokémon, thus completing your POKéDEX, you must trade with other versions of the Pokémon game. Work together with your friends to get your POKéDEX as complete as possible!

THE WORLD OF POKÉMON

Try to become the best trainer ever!

Another goal is to improve your skills as a Pokémon Trainer. During your adventures, you'll battle Wild Pokémon, as well as other trainers. Both battles will help you and your Pokémon become stronger. There are also Pokémon Gyms in this world, each of which has a very talented trainer known as the Gym Leader. Only those who can defeat the Gym Leaders will be accepted as true trainers. However, the Gym Leaders have very powerful Pokémon that will be difficult to defeat. It will be a tough fight, but you must be brave and charge into battle!

There is a BERRY that turns into a Poké Ball!

On your journey you will find some places where fruit-bearing trees grow. There is an artisan in one of the towns who will take the Apricorn from one of these trees and turn it into a special Poké Ball. If you find him, ask him to make one for you. It is said, however, that he will do this only for someone he likes. If you take an Apricorn from one of these trees, a new Apricorn will grow back by the next day.

Technical and Hidden Machines

Both Technical and Hidden Machines allow your Pokémon to learn new MOVES. Technical Machines (TM) can be used only once, but you can use Hidden Machines (HM) as often as you like. Different types of Pokémon will be able to learn different MOVES.

Examples of MOVES Used in the Field

FLASH	Lights up pitch-black caves, making it easier to get around
CUT	Instantly cuts down trees that block the road
FLY	Instantly returns you to a town you've previously visited
SURF	Lets you move across bodies of water, such as the sea or rivers

WHIRLPOOL	Allows you to move safely across a whirlpool

- MOVES learned with a Hidden Machine can be used both in battles and in the field.

ROCK SMASH	Smashes rocks that block the road
DIG	Lets you escape from places such as caves
HEADBUTT	May cause a Pokémon to appear when used on a tree

- Some, but not all, MOVES learned with a Technical Machine can be used both in battles and in the field.

BATTLE MODE

There are two kinds of Battle Modes. One is for fighting against Wild Pokémon, and the other is for battling other Pokémon Trainers. When a battle starts, the first Pokémon in your lineup will appear. If you win the battle, each Pokémon that participated in the battle will receive a share of the Experience Points. However, if all your Pokémon faint, you will lose the battle, you will be returned to the last Pokémon Center you used, and you will lose half of your money.

Fighting Wild Pokémon

Pokémon live in places such as caves and grassy areas, so when you pass through such places, Wild Pokémon may attack. When they do, you can use a Poké Ball—or another type of ball—to catch them.

Battling a Pokémon Trainer

If you make eye contact with a trainer or walk in front of one, he or she will challenge you to a duel. You cannot run from a battle against a fellow Pokémon Trainer—the battle will continue until a winner is decided. If you are victorious, you will be rewarded with prize money. Also, some trainers may ask for your phone number once the battle is over.

- You cannot capture an opponent's Pokémon.

During a battle against a trainer, the number of Pokémon you each have will be indicated by a  symbol.

Looking at the Battle Screen

A Pokémon that you caught will have a  symbol by its name

Name of opponent's Pokémon

Gender of opponent's Pokémon

Level of opponent's Pokémon

HP of opponent's Pokémon

Pokémon's gender

Experience Points Meter

How close the Pokémon is to reaching the next level.

Pokémon's Gender

♂ is male, and ♀ is female. (Some Pokémon are neither.)

- You can use items to restore HP and PP. You can also heal your Pokémon at a Pokémon Center for free.

When Status is Affected

If you get hit by an opponent's special attack, your Pokémon's status might be affected. However, you can use your items to help your Pokémon recover. Or you can take it to a Pokémon Center where it will recover completely at no charge.

POISON	Gradually decreases HP during the battle. If the POISON doesn't wear off, HP will continue to decrease even after the battle is finished.
PARALYZE	Numbs the Pokémon's body and makes it difficult for it to use its MOVES
SLEEP	Puts opponent to sleep, making it unable to fight
ICE	Freezes Pokémon so that it cannot fight
BURN	Gradually decreases HP during the battle
FAINT	When HP reaches 0, the Pokémon can no longer battle

- Pokémon may also become CONFUSED during battles.

BATTLE MODE

Hints for Fighting

Use a Pokémon's type to your advantage.

The various types of Pokémon—such as Electric, Grass, etc.—each have different strengths and weaknesses against other types. For example, Water-type MOVES have the greatest effect on Fire-type Pokémon, while Ground-type MOVES have no effect on Flying-type Pokémon. Use these qualities to your advantage to come up with an effective battle strategy.

Give your Pokémon a BERRY.

Fruit-bearing trees grow in various places. The BERRIES that grow on these trees have different effects, such as curing poison or paralysis. If you let a Pokémon hold one of these BERRIES, it will be able to recover when it receives damage in battle. There are also some items other than BERRIES that Pokémon can hold (see pg. 23).

CATCHING AND RAISING POKÉMON

You can catch a Wild Pokémon with a Poké Ball. Once you are in Battle Mode, select PACK. Next, choose a Poké Ball to throw at the Pokémon and capture it. After you have caught the Pokémon, you can give it a nickname.

The Secret to Catching Pokémon

If you use a Poké Ball on a Pokémon that has taken very little damage, it will break free of the ball. You must first weaken the Pokémon by attacking it until its HP is low. It will also be easier to catch the Pokémon if you put it to sleep, poison it, etc.

- See pg. 24 for information on the different types of Poké Balls.

Where to Find Pokémon

You will run into Wild Pokémon if you walk in the grass along the side of the road.

- If your Pokémon's HP is low, and you don't want to fight, avoid walking in grassy areas.

Inside caves, Wild Pokémon can be found all over the place.

CATCHING AND RAISING POKÉMON

Water-type Pokémon may appear when you are crossing a lake or the ocean. You can also use a Fishing Rod by the water to catch some Pokémon.

A Bug-Catching Contest is held several times a week at a certain park. If you participate, you might just be able to catch some rare Pokémon!

If you use HEADBUTT while facing a tree, a Wild Pokémon might come tumbling down.

Different Pokémon will appear at different times of day.

Based on how you set the clock at the beginning of the game, time in the game will pass just as it does in real life. Also, different types of Pokémon will appear at different times of day (MORN, DAY or NITE). For example, the Pokémon HOOTHOOT™ seems to be nocturnal and will come out only at night. Even if you've been to a certain area before, try going there again at a different time of day.

CATCHING AND RAISING POKÉMON

Here's a hint for raising weak Pokémon.

First of all, place the weak Pokémon first in your battle lineup. Then, immediately switch to another Pokémon as soon as you enter Battle Mode. As long as you win the battle, even the weaker Pokémon that didn't fight will receive a portion of the Experience Points. This takes a bit of effort, but by repeating these steps, you can slowly but steadily increase the level of a weak Pokémon.

Traded Pokémon grow the fastest.

Pokémon you receive from a trade receive a larger-than-normal portion of Experience Points when they win a battle. Try to trade with your friends a lot (see pg. 38).

CATCHING AND RAISING POKÉMON

Pokémon Evolution

There are some Pokémon that evolve and change form as they grow. A Pokémon can evolve when its level increases, through the use of an Evolution Stone, or if it is traded. There is also a rumor that there are other ways they can evolve...

Leave your Pokémon at a Daycare.

In a certain town there is an older couple who will raise your Pokémon for you. You can leave up to two Pokémon with them at a time. It takes a while to raise them, so wait a bit before you come back to check on them. You will also need to pay the couple a small fee when you receive your Pokémon from them.

CATCHING AND RAISING POKÉMON

A Pokémon Egg was found?!?

There are many unsolved mysteries about Pokémon, and the Pokémon Egg is just one of these. If you leave a couple of your Pokémon at a Daycare, you may return to find an egg...

GYM LEADERS AND BADGES

There is a Leader in every Pokémon Gym. Every Leader is a tough, specialized trainer. For example, one Leader may be an expert with bird Pokémon, while another strikes with Ice-type attacks. However, if you are able to beat a Gym Leader, you'll receive an official Pokémon League Badge as evidence of your impressive victory. Wearing these badges gives you some sort of affect...

Violet City Gym's Falkner

Zephyr Badge

Increases the attack power of your Pokémon. Allows you to use Flash, even outside of battle.

Azalea Town Gym's Bugsy

LINKING UP TO TRADE OR BATTLE

Use a Game Link[®] cable (sold separately) to have fun trading or battling your friends with Pokémon Gold and Pokémon Silver.

- You cannot have link battles with the Red, Blue or Yellow Versions of Pokémon (see pg. 41). See pg. 42 for more information on trading Pokémon. Also, please do not attempt to trade or battle with a foreign version of Pokémon, or your data will be corrupted.

Trade Center

Colosseum

Time Capsule

Preparing to Link Up

Connect two Game Boy systems using a Game Link cable. Turn the power ON, select CONTINUE, then go to a Cable Club on the second floor of any Pokémon Center. If you are trading with a Gold or Silver Version, head to the Trade Center. If you are battling with a Gold or Silver Version, go to the Colosseum. If you are trading with a Red, Blue or Yellow Version, speak to the receptionist at the Time Capsule.

Trading at the Trade Center

Follow the instructions that the receptionist gives you. Your data will be saved automatically before the trade begins.

LINKING UP TO TRADE OR BATTLE

Enter the Trade Center, face each other at the table in the middle of the room, then press the A Button.

A list of the Pokémon you can trade will appear. Select STATS to check the status of your Pokémon, then figure out which Pokémon you will trade. When you are ready, select TRADE.

After a little while, TRADE / CANCEL will appear on the screen. Select TRADE, then press the A Button to begin the trade. Your Pokémon will then be transmitted through the Game Link cable.

- Pokémon that evolve by being traded will evolve at this time.

LINKING UP TO TRADE OR BATTLE

Once the trade is complete, select CANCEL to return to the Trade Center screen.

- The traded Pokémon will be saved at this point.

Let a Pokémon hold an item before you trade.

Before you trade at a Trade Center, you can give an item to your Pokémon. In other words, you can trade items using Pokémon. You can give a rare or useful item to your friend this way. Also, if you give them Mail, you can exchange letters. There is a rumor that trading items this way will have some sort of effect on Pokémon that evolve...

LINKING UP TO TRADE OR BATTLE

Battle at the Colosseum

Unlike normal battles, you can't use items when battling in the Colosseum. Also, if you Run, you will lose the battle. It is a good idea for you and your friend to come up with your own rules. For example, you may want to limit the types of Pokémon that can be used or battle only with Pokémon that are Level 20 or below. If you do this, your battles will be even more fun!

- You cannot battle with a Red, Blue or Yellow Version.

The receptionist will show you to the Colosseum room. You and your friend should both sit at the table, then press the A Button to enter Battle Mode.

The Pokémon each of you has will be displayed just before you start to battle. The results will be displayed once the winner has been decided.

- There is a poster to the left of the Reception Counter where your battle record will be recorded.

LINKING UP TO TRADE OR BATTLE

Trading at the Time Capsule

You can use the Time Capsule to trade Pokémon with a Red, Blue or Yellow Version of Pokémon.

- The Time Capsule will be under construction at the beginning of the game, but it should become available after you play for a while.

IMPORTANT!

You can't trade Pokémon that do not appear in the Red, Blue or Yellow Version. Also, Pokémon with MOVES that do not appear in these versions cannot be traded.

CHIKORITA™ does not appear in the Red, Blue or Yellow Version.

The text says, "You can't take the ODDISH with a SWEET SCENT." The MOVE, SWEET SCENT, does not appear in the Red, Blue or Yellow Version.

Chat with the Time Capsule's receptionist.

- In the Red, Blue and Yellow Versions, speak with the Cable Club receptionist.

LINKING UP TO TRADE OR BATTLE

Save your data before you start the trade.

You will be shown to the Time Capsule. Face each other at the center table, then press the A Button.

A list of the Pokémon you can trade will appear. Select STATS to check the status of your Pokémon, then figure out which Pokémon you will trade. When you are ready, select TRADE.

LINKING UP TO TRADE OR BATTLE

After a little while, TRADE / CANCEL will appear on the screen. Select TRADE, then press the A Button to begin the trade. Your Pokémon will then be transmitted through the Game Link cable.

- Pokémon that evolve by being traded will evolve at this time.

Once the trade is complete, select CANCEL to return to the Trade Center screen.

- The traded Pokémon will be saved at this point.

There's someone who can make your Pokémon forget their MOVES?

Sometimes the receptionist at the Time Capsule won't allow you to start, even though your Pokémon appears in the Red, Blue or Yellow Version. If so, the Pokémon must have learned a MOVE that does not appear in the other versions. If the Pokémon could forget that MOVE, you could trade it at the Time Capsule. Now, if only there were someone who could make your Pokémon forget their MOVES...

MYSTERY GIFT

You can send and receive Mystery Gifts to and from friends using the built-in Infrared Communications Port. This is a fun way to increase the various types of items you have.

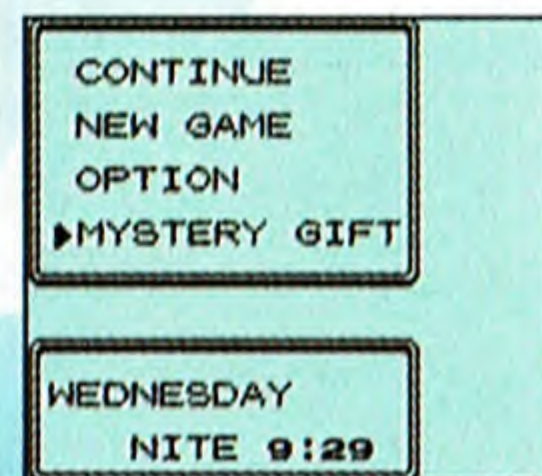

- You can only send a Mystery Gift between two Game Boy Color systems.
- You can get items from either the second floor of a Pokémon Center or from the PC in your house.

You won't be able to send or receive Mystery Gifts at first. Talk to the girl on the fifth floor of the Department Store in Goldenrod City (Game Boy Color only), then save your game. The next time you play, MYSTERY GIFT will appear on the menu.

How to Use the Mystery Gift

Turn both Game Boy Color systems ON. On the Title Screen, press START or the A Button to bring up the menu. Select MYSTERY GIFT, then press the A Button.

MYSTERY GIFT

When the Game Link Screen appears, align the triangle marks on the tops of your Game Boy Color systems and place them within 2 inches of each other.

- To increase the chance of success, place the systems on a flat surface, such as a table.

When one of you presses the A Button, the items will appear on both of your screens. You won't know what items will appear until you press the button. You may be able to get some rare items that aren't even sold in stores. Try this with as many friends as you can.

- You can use the Mystery Gift up to five times a day, but you can only receive a gift from the same friend once a day.

Communicating with Pokémon Pikachu™ 2 GS

You can also use the Mystery Gift with a Pokémon Pikachu 2 GS (sold separately). You can receive different kinds of items depending on the number of watts you've saved on your Pokémon Pikachu 2 GS. There is no limit to the number of times you can communicate with a Pokémon Pikachu 2 GS or who you can trade with each day.

- See the Instruction Booklet for Pokémon Pikachu 2 GS.

You can use a Game Boy® Printer (sold separately) to print out Pokémon data from your POKéDEX and from Bill's PC.

- See pg. 9 for information on changing the darkness of the printout.

Printing the POKéDEX

Connect your Game Boy system to the Game Boy Printer, then turn the power ON on both the Game Boy system and the Game Boy Printer.

Select CONTINUE. Once the game begins, go to the Menu Screen and select POKéDEX.

Select the Pokémon you want to print, then press the A Button.

PRINTING

Select PRINT, then press the A Button to begin printing. Press the B Button to cancel printing.

Printing with Bill's PC

Connect your Game Boy system to the Game Boy Printer, then turn the power ON on both the Game Boy system and the Game Boy Printer.

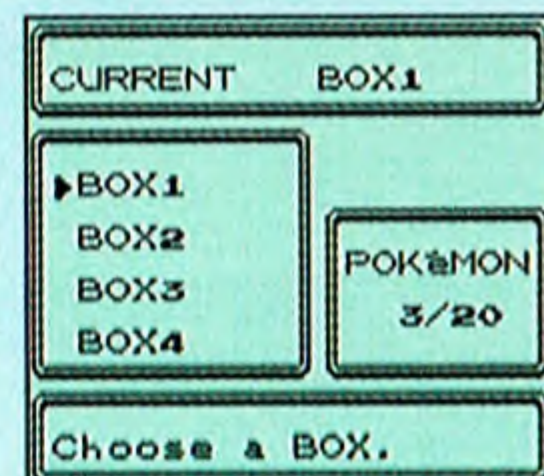

Select CONTINUE. Once the game begins, log on to Bill's PC.

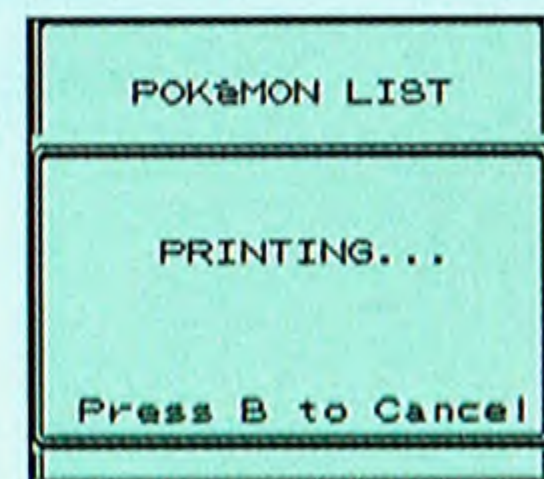

PRINTING

Select CHANGE BOX, then decide which box you want to print.

When PRINT appears, press the A Button.

The Pokémon list will begin to print. Press the B Button to cancel printing.

In addition to the POKéDEX and Bill's PC, you can also print Mail and Pokémon Status. Maybe you can print other things, too...? You'll have to play the game to find out!
